

Keeping America's Promise to the UN

Job Well Done!

Senate Votes to Pay UN Arrears...

Senators Jesse Helms (R-NC) and Joseph Biden (D-DE) provided the leadership, and a nearly unanimous Senate gave them support, to pass bipartisan legislation that pays our overdue bills to the United Nations and honors our longstanding legal obligation.

These Senators recognize the vital role the UN plays in helping America exercise world leadership through peacekeeping, humanitarian relief, care for children, open markets, and much more. Their vote also acknowledges the major operational reforms undertaken by the UN.

Now it's time for the House of Representatives to do its part. Honor our legal obligations and pay our UN bills.

Thank You.
